Coral Day 2022 was a big success thanks to the hard work of Kevin Handlon and the other members of the Coral Community Committee. The weather cooperated, and everyone had an enjoyable time.

All day long there was a flea market at the park, a bounce house, pony rides, a pioneer village and music.

The day started with a free breakfast at Emmanuel Baptist Church from 8 to 10 a.m. Also at 8 there was a horseshoe competition at the park.

The big event was the grand parade at 11. Then from 1 to 3 p.m. there was a soap box derby on Main Street.

If anyone was hungry, there were food and drinks at Ziggy's and Holy Hot Dogs, as well as Kettle Corn.

This year's grand marshals were Roger and Marie Becker. The Beckers have a business at the south end of Coral. Roger's parents moved to Coral in 1974, and Roger spent most of his life here. Marie moved here in 2004. They met and were married one year later in February of 2005. They have five kids altogether, with some from previous marriages and two from the current marriage. Roger and Marie like the area with the friendly people and the slower pace of life here in Coral.

For those who may not be acquainted with the history of Coral, the village was founded in 1862 by Charles Parker. He was from Norwood, Ontario and worked as a cabinet and pattern maker. In 1861, upon hearing of the fine land available in Michigan, he bought 80 acres on what is now the village of Coral. After building a log cabin, in 1862 he brought his wife and six children to their new home in Michigan. He engaged in the lumbering business and his logging camp was the beginning of the village of Coral. The town was originally known as Stumptown, but the name was changed to Coral in 1869.
