Five Corners Store Demolished

The big yellow country store stood guard for decades on the corner of M-91 (Greenville Road) and Kendaville Road and has been the place to go when you run out of something or need just that one thing you forgot. It was also the place to go for pizza, subs, ice cream and pop. We thought it would be there forever, until...well it wasn't. This past week it was demolished. The owners plan to rebuild. Will it be the same? NO, but we look forward to having our store back again - raising like a Phoenix from the ashes. The question is .. will the new store be painted yellow?
